

THE PRE-ETS PROGRAM

The Workforce Innovation & Opportunity Act (WIOA) is a federal law that requires that Pre-Employment Transition Services (Pre-ETS) be provided to students with disabilities who are:

1. Between ages of 16 - 21
2. Enrolled in high school or college and receiving Special Education Services, or participating in another educational program.

PRE-EMPLOYMENT TRANSITION SERVICES (PRE-ETS) PROGRAM

CNMI OFFICE OF VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION

What is the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation (OVR)?

OVR helps people with disabilities obtain the skills and resources needed to get a job, keep a job, and develop a career. We are here to help you transition from high school to job prospects after graduation.

PRE-ETS SERVICES

- Job exploration counseling
- Work-based learning experiences
- Counseling on post-secondary (college) options
- Work readiness training
- Instruction on self-advocacy

HOW DOES IT WORK?

STEP 1: CONNECT

3 - 4 years prior to exit, we'll work with your Individualized Education Program (IEP) team to build out the future you want post-graduation. We'll also share self-advocacy skills, community resources, and start creating your portfolio.

STEP 2: EXPLORE

2 years prior to exit, we'll evaluate your skills, discover your interests, identify your career options, and help you gain work or volunteer experience.

STEP 3: PREPARE

Before exiting, we'll develop your career plan, continue your work experience, and maintain contact with your OVR team.

STEP 4: SUCCEED

Finally, we'll explore college options, help you become employed, gain independence, and achieve your goals!
